

ARNG Warrant Officer Promotions

Table of Contents

Summary

Army National Guard Warrant Officers Service and Education Requirements for Promotion

Frequently Asked Questions

References

Points of Contact

Summary

Army National Guard (ARNG) Warrant Officers are appointed and promoted by the States. They must meet the promotion requirements established in NGR 600-101 in order to be federally recognized in the new pay grade. Federal recognition boards determine if a warrant officer is qualified for promotion.

Back to top

Army National Guard Warrant Officers Service and Education Requirements for Promotion

Required Military Education for Promotion	Minimum Time in Grade	To the Grade of:
WO Basic Course	2 Years	CW-2
WO Advanced Course	4/5 Years	CW-3
WO Staff Course	5/6 Years	CW-4
WO Senior Staff Course	5 Years	CW-5

Back to top

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What are the criteria an ARNG Warrant Officer must meet in order to be eligible for promotion?

A. All ARNG Warrant Officers are required to have meet the minimum Time-In-Grade and must have completed the military education for the new grade in accordance with table 7-2, NGR 600-101. Additionally, ARNG warrant officers must also meet the following criteria:

- Warrant Officer must be recommended by their supervisor/commander
- Be participating in a drilling unit satisfactorily (T-32/M-Day)
- Meet the prescribed medical fitness standards.
- Meet the height/weight or body fat content, physical and physical fitness test standards.
- Have maintained the appropriate security clearance.
- Have met other requirements as specified by the board.

Back to top

References

Regulations

- NGR 600-101, Warrant Officers - Federal Recognition and Related Personnel Actions

Documents and Forms

- NGB Form 89, ARNG Proceedings of a Federal Recognition Examining Board

Back to top

Points of Contact

- HRH
Warrant Officer Branch
COML: (703) 607-5850
Email: arng-hrh-o@us.army.mil

Back to top

02 AUG 10